Now kids 12 and under can compete like the big kids because the smaller courts, slower balls and appropriate sized rackets let them learn fast.

Tennis Tots

The goal of Tennis Tots is inspiring young children in a fun and nurturing atmosphere and teaching them developmentally sound and age appropriate physical skills (including coordination, balance, agility, reaction, jumping, skipping, throwing, catching, tracking, handling the racquet and hitting). Parent participation is encouraged.

Age Guideline: 3 - 4

Class Length: 60 minutes

Red Ball

From the moment they step on the 36 foot court, kids learn the physical skills necessary to rally the ball and play the game of tennis, including coordination, balance, agility, reaction, jumping, skipping, throwing, catching, tracking, handling the racquet and hitting with biomechanically sound technique. Both introductory and more advanced classes are offered.

- Stars: This class is designed for beginning players. Stars spend a large percentage of their time learning the physical skills necessary to play tennis. They also participate in competitive games and limited point play.

Age Guideline: 4 - 6

Class Length: 60 minutes

- Aces: Aces players are continuing to develop basic skills introduced and practiced in Stars. Players work on technical stroke production, movement, and point play when able to rally balls. The players who have started to play points and rally would enjoy and benefit from playing USTA Team Tennis.

Age Guideline: 5 - 8

Class Length: 60 minutes

Orange Ball

Playing on a 60 foot court, kids hone their skills and stroke technique. Both introductory and more advanced classes are offered. Class size is limited to 5 students.

Age Guideline: 9 - 10

Class Length: 60 minutes

- Orange Ball: Classes are designed for beginning players and players who have progressed from Red Ball classes. Players work on the physical skills necessary to play tennis as well as stroke biomechanics, consistency and movement. Players with more tennis experience continue to work on technical stroke production and point play. They also are introduced to point and match play and taught basic tactics and strategy. These students would enjoy and benefit from USTA Team Tennis and novice tournaments.

Green Ball

Green Ball is designed for players who have aged out or leveled up from Orange Ball. Players in Green Ball groups range from beginners to tournament level players. Each participant will be grouped according to tennis experience and ability. Now on a full size court, players work on the physical skills necessary to play tennis as well as stroke biomechanics, consistency, and movement. They also participate in competitive games and point play.

Age Guideline: 11 - 13

Class Length: 60 minutes

Yellow Ball

This class is for players who have developed the basic skills taught in Green Ball. Students work more on technical stroke production and point play. They also are introduced to match play and taught basic tactics and strategy. Many of these students would benefit from playing USTA team tennis and tournaments.

Age Guideline: 12+

Class Length: 60 minutes

Performance Academy

Many of our Orange, Green and Yellow Ball students participate in an invitation only program called Performance Academy. This advanced training is geared toward tournament players and focuses intensely on stroke biomechanics, game strategy, fitness and competitive play. If you would like to know more about Performance Academy, please contact one of the Tennis Academy Directors.

QUESTIONS?

Please contact Will Campbell, 501-551-0997/willcampbell@lrrcfc.com at the LRRC or Leslye Gibbens, 501-960-1263/leslyegibbens@lrac.com at the LRAC.

OUR EXPECTATIONS

Like dance lessons and sports seasons, you are making a commitment to spend the entire session with us when you join the Tennis Academy. Our goal is to teach your child to play tennis - great tennis if they're willing to work hard. In order for that to happen, we need to see his/her happy face here - regularly and often. If you absolutely must drop mid-session, we must be notified by the 15th of the month via a text to Leslye or Will (see numbers below) to avoid being charged for the following month. For families that have paid in full for the session, we will refund the equivalent of installment payments still remaining in the session.

NON-MEMBER SESSION FEE

Membership dues help underwrite the expense associated with the maintenance and utilities related to tennis courts. To make things more equitable, we charge a $40 usage fee for those players that are not associated with an active membership at one of our Clubs so that they, too, share in some of the operating expenses. Please note, should a player start the session as a TAC member but, for some reason that status changes, then the full usage fee will be charged regardless of how far we are into the session.
